- God's intervention in driving down the infection curve of the Covid-19 pandemic.
- Prayer for frontline workers (medical doctors, nurses, those providing support in our country's health institutions, security cluster, students and Educators).
- The country's economy.
- All those that have been infected - especially the families of those who have succumbed to the pandemic.
- Praying against the demonic spirit behind Gender-based violence in our country.
- Praying against violent crime in all our communities.

I am asking that you have a solidarity prayer at 12h00-13h00 on Sunday, 2 August 2020. Watch below for a video message regarding the AFM Day of Prayer and Fasting:
